

Living at Home Waiver Program

Providing community services and supports to enable people with physical disabilities to live in their own home.

What is Assistive Technology Services?

Assistive Technology Services – a device, appliance or technology that is not otherwise covered under Medicaid, Medicare or private health insurance.

Types of Assistive Technology Providers

There is one type of Assistive Technology provider.

Agency – Employed Model – provider must be a store, vendor, organization, or company that sells or rents the equipment/system or a Medicaid provider of disposable medical supplies and durable medical equipment.

Credentials for Agency Employed Assistive Technology Providers

Evidence that the applicant is a store, vendor or company which:

- A. Sells or rents the equipment or system, or
- B. Is a Medicaid provider of disposable medical supplies/durable medical equipment and
- C. Installs, services, trains, monitors for the proper operation of the device or system

Payment Rate Effective July 1, 2006

$6,124.18 total amount of reimbursement by the Program for environmental accessibility adaptations and assistive technology combined during a 12 month period.